Lot 45: United States Mint 1824 Large Cent & 3 Others, Holed & Carved, Early American Copper Coins

This lot features four historic United States Large Cents, made of copper. One coin is identified as an 1824 issue, while the mint years of the remaining three coins are too worn to be deciphered. Two of the coins exhibit significant post-mint damage, each having a hole drilled through its surface, likely for use as jewelry or for hanging. A third coin shows a large, intentional 'X' carved into its obverse. All coins are heavily circulated, displaying considerable wear that has obscured much of their original detail and luster. They present a dark, aged patina consistent with their age and condition. No official grade is assigned, and they are not slabbed or graded by a third party. They are offered as-is, reflecting their historical journey and unique condition., Condition: As-Is

Lot 46: Indian Head Cents US Coins - Collectible Lot of Five - 1864, 1902, two 1903, 1907 Philadelphia Mint

This lot features five United States One Cent coins, commonly known as Indian Head Cents, all in circulated condition and ungraded. These coins represent a period of significant American history and are sought after by collectors for their iconic design and historical value., ### Coin Details; 1864 Indian Head Cent (Philadelphia Mint, no mint mark): This coin is composed of 88% Copper and 12% Nickel, a composition used for early Indian Head Cents. It exhibits significant wear, with details softened but discernible, consistent with heavy circulation. Toning is a dark brown, reflecting its age and journey., 1902 Indian Head Cent (Philadelphia Mint, no mint mark): Composed of 95% Copper and 5% Tin/Zinc (bronze). This coin shows noticeable wear, with the design elements worn but still clear. It has a generally even brown toning, indicative of long-term exposure., 1903 Indian Head Cent (Philadelphia Mint, no mint mark): One of two such coins in this lot. Composed of 95% Copper and 5% Tin/Zinc. This example presents wear typical of a circulated coin, with moderate detail loss and a pleasing brown toning., 1903 Indian Head Cent (Philadelphia Mint, no mint mark): The second 1903 coin included. Composed of 95% Copper and 5% Tin/Zinc. This coin also shows significant circulation wear and a darker, slightly greenish-brown patina, particularly noticeable on the reverse side, suggesting varied environmental exposure., 1907 Indian Head Cent (Philadelphia Mint, no mint mark): Composed of 95% Copper and 5% Tin/Zinc. This coin is moderately worn, with facial features and legends still legible, offering a good representation of a late-date Indian Head Cent in circulated condition. Toning is an even brown., None of the coins in this lot are slabbed or have been professionally graded by a third party. They are offered as-is, reflecting their historical journey through circulation., Condition: As-Is

Lot 47: US Mint Buffalo Indian Head Nickels - 20-Coin Lot, Circulated, Mixed Dates, Silver-Gray

This lot features twenty (20) United States Buffalo Nickels, also known as Indian Head Nickels. Each coin represents a denomination of Five Cents ($.05) and originates from the United States of America. The coins are of mixed dates, with varying levels of clarity; some mint years appear to be from the 1930s, though specific dates and mint marks are not clearly discernible on all pieces. Composed of 75% copper and 25% nickel, these coins are in circulated condition, showing wear consistent with their age and use. They are ungraded and have not undergone third-party certification. Condition details include wear on prominent design elements, natural toning which varies among the coins, and one coin is noticeably darker, suggesting unique environmental exposure or toning. Original luster is largely absent due to circulation., Condition: As-Is

Lot 48: US 90% Silver Mercury Dimes, Lot of 15 Circulated Coins, 1916-1945

This lot features 15 United States Mercury Dimes, offering a glimpse into American numismatic history. Each coin is a dime denomination from the United States, composed of 90% silver and 10% copper. The mint years for these examples primarily fall within the 1916-1945 range, characteristic of the Mercury Dime series. While specific mint marks are not clearly discernible for all coins from the provided images, common mints include Philadelphia (no mint mark), Denver (D), and San Francisco (S). The coins are in circulated condition, generally ranging from Fine to Very Fine, showcasing wear consistent with their age and use in commerce. Condition details vary among the individual pieces, including natural toning which ranges from light to darker hues, and some coins may retain hints of their original luster. There are no indications of these coins being professionally slabbed or graded by a third-party service., Condition: As-Is

Lot 49: Assorted US Quarters and Pennies Coin Collection - Circulated Condition, Various Years

This collection features US coinage, suitable for numismatic enthusiasts or those starting a collection. It includes various denominations, each identified below; 1. United States Washington Quarters (x12), Denomination: 25 cents, Country: United States, Mint Year: Specific years are not clearly discernible from the images, but they appear to be modern circulating issues (post-1964 copper-nickel clad), Mint Mark: Not discernible from the images., Metal Composition: Copper-nickel clad, typical for modern US quarters., Condition: Circulated, showing wear, toning, and luster loss consistent with general use. No significant scratches or damage beyond normal circulation is apparent., 2. United States Lincoln Cents (x3), Denomination: 1 cent, Country: United States, Mint Year: Specific years are not clearly discernible from the images, but they appear to be circulating issues., Mint Mark: Not discernible from the images., Metal Composition: Likely a mix of copper-plated zinc (post-1982) and potentially bronze/copper (pre-1982), common for Lincoln Cents., Condition: Circulated, showing wear, toning, and luster loss consistent with general use. No significant scratches or damage beyond normal circulation is apparent., Condition: As-Is

Lot 50: Unsorted Collection of Wheat Pennies, 50 US Lincoln Cents, Copper

This listing features an unsorted collection of approximately 50 US Lincoln Wheat Pennies. Each coin is a one-cent denomination from the United States, typically composed of 95% copper for issues prior to 1982. The collection comprises circulated coins, and as such, individual mint years, mint marks, and precise grades are not individually specified or guaranteed without further detailed examination. The overall condition of the coins is consistent with typical circulation, showing varying degrees of toning, wear, and possible minor scratches commensurate with their age and use. No third-party grading or slabbing is present for these raw coins., Condition: As-Is

Lot 51: Vintage Mixed Lot of Tokens, Damaged Coins & Hollow Backed Pennies - Collectible Assortment

This collection features a diverse assortment of tokens, damaged coins, and unique 'hollow backed' or center-holed items, providing insight into various historical uses from transit to amusement. The lot includes; 1. Transit Tokens: Several pieces are present, including 'GOOD FOR ONE FARE' tokens with fluted edges, one specifically identifiable as a 'CINCINNATI' transit token, and a classic 'GOOD FOR ONE ZONE FARE' token reminiscent of Chicago Transit Authority issues. These tokens are composed of various base metals, displaying significant circulation wear, toning, and some surface scratches consistent with their utility., 2. Amusement/Arcade Tokens: The collection contains multiple 'REDPOINT' and 'OPA REDPOINT' tokens, along with a distinct 'GOOD FOR ONE LINE' token. These are generally made of copper or brass alloys and exhibit noticeable wear and some areas of original luster, though heavily circulated., 3. US Cents and Older Copper Coins: A variety of United States cents, including at least one discernible 'ONE CENT UNITED STATES OF AMERICA' (likely a Lincoln cent), are part of the lot. Several other copper-colored coins, possibly including a large cent-style piece, show extreme wear, making specific denomination, country, mint year, and mint mark identification challenging without further examination. Many display heavy toning, significant scratches, and evidence of prolonged circulation or environmental damage. Some coins could be considered 'hollow backed pennies' due to severe wear or alteration, though a direct example of a physically hollowed penny isn't explicit, the term may refer to those with very faint or absent designs., 4. Damaged & Unidentified Pieces: The lot also includes a distinctive silver-colored token or coin with an oblong central hole, indicative of either damage or a specific token design. Additionally, a large, irregular-shaped copper/bronze piece is present, showing severe abrasion and corrosion, rendering specific identification impossible. This piece exemplifies a 'damaged coin' due to its poor condition., None of the items in this collection have been slabbed or graded by a third party, and their condition ranges from heavily circulated to significantly damaged, with varying degrees of toning and surface marks., Condition: As-Is

- 52 Lot 52: Assorted Mixed International Coinage Collection - Variety of Denominations, Countries, and Eras
This collection features a diverse assortment of Mixed International Coinage, encompassing various countries, denominations, and historical periods. Each coin is presented in its raw, circulated condition, exhibiting a range of toning, luster, and wear consistent with its age and use. No coins in this lot appear to have been professionally slabbed or formally graded by a third party., Key examples within the collection include:, French 1 Franc, 1944: This piece, likely composed of aluminum, shows moderate circulation with visible surface marks and wear. The obverse prominently displays 'LIBERTE EGALITE FRATERNITE' encircling a wreath, while the reverse indicates 'FRANC' and the mint year '1944'. Japanese 5 Yen (Holed), Showa Era: Crafted from brass, this coin is in circulated condition, demonstrating clear signs of use and toning. Its distinctive design features a rice plant and water, with a central hole, a hallmark of this denomination., British Coin, George V/VI Reign: A coin from the British monarchy during the reign of George V or George VI, appearing brass or bronze in color. It is heavily circulated with details showing wear, though still discernible, contributing to its historical appeal., Chinese Cash Coin (Square Hole): This ancient-looking bronze or copper coin features heavy toning and a central square hole, characteristic of traditional Chinese currency. Chinese characters are visible around the hole, suggesting significant age and historical depth., Additionally, the lot comprises various other denominations from different parts of the world, including common issues from North America and Europe, all in mixed circulated conditions., Condition: As-Is
- 53 Lot 53: Assorted World Coins Collection - Mixed International Coinage Lot
This collection comprises a diverse assortment of mixed international coinage from various countries and historical periods., Identified Coins Include:, A 20 Francs coin from France, exhibiting moderate circulation and surface toning typical of its age., A coin from the Kingdom of Denmark, displaying typical wear consistent with its historical period., A Deutsche Mark coin from Germany, showing clear lettering and typical circulated condition., Numerous other coins are present, originating from various nations across the globe. Denominations, mint years, and specific mint marks for many pieces are not clearly discernible from the images provided., Metal Composition: The lot includes coins in various metallic compositions, such as copper, bronze, and silver-colored alloys., Condition: All coins appear to be in circulated condition, showing varying degrees of wear, scratching, and toning commensurate with their age and use. - 55 Lot 55: Set of Four 10k Gold Class Rings - Various Designs, Used Condition
This lot includes four distinct class rings. Each ring is confirmed to be 10k gold by the stamp, indicating its metal composition. The rings display various unique designs, likely representing different schools or graduating classes. One ring prominently features a blue enamel or stone, while another showcases a vibrant purple enamel or stone. The remaining two rings exhibit intricate engraved details. All rings are in used condition, showing signs of wear, toning, and luster consistent with their age and previous ownership. No specific mint year, mint mark, or third-party grading information is available. They are presented as-is., Condition: As-Is
- 56 Lot 56: 14k Gold 1ct Diamond Men's Ring, Gold Tone
This men's ring is composed of 14k gold and features a 1 carat diamond. The piece is in used condition, showing expected wear consistent with its history while maintaining good luster in the gold. The diamond is securely set and exhibits clear characteristics. There are no major scratches or significant condition details that detract from its appearance. This item has not been professionally graded., Condition: As-Is
- 57 Lot 57: 14k Gold 1/3ct Diamond Wedding Set - Engagement Ring and Wedding Band
This offering features a wedding set, comprised of two rings: an engagement ring and a matching wedding band. Both rings are identified by their metal composition as 14k gold. The engagement ring is adorned with a diamond, totaling 1/3 carat. The set is in used condition, displaying good luster, and the diamonds appear securely set with no discernible scratches or significant wear on the metal. The items are presented on a dark teal velvet cushion., Condition: As-Is
- 58 Lot 58: 14kt Gold 1/2ct Diamond Engagement Ring, Gold
This engagement ring is crafted from 14kt gold, presenting a radiant 1/2 carat diamond. The metal composition exhibits a desirable luster, complementing the clear and well-set diamond. While no specific grade is indicated, the ring appears in good, used condition, showcasing minimal signs of wear. The item is securely nestled within a dark teal velvet pouch for presentation or safekeeping., Condition: As-Is
- 59 Lot 59: Treasure 18k Gold Plain Band Ring, Yellow Gold
This item is identified as a gold ring. Its metal composition is 18k Gold, explicitly stamped 'Treasure 18k'. The ring presents as a simple, unadorned band with a smooth finish. Examination suggests good condition, with a visible luster and no prominent scratches or significant toning., Condition: As-Is
- 60 Lot 60: Three Sterling Silver Rings - Assorted Designs, Used Condition, Silver Tone
This lot comprises three distinct sterling silver rings, each identified by its unique design and condition., 1. Floral/Leaf Motif Ring: Crafted from Sterling Silver, this ring features an intricate floral or leaf design, possibly in an open or adjustable style. The metal exhibits an appealing dark oxidation within the design's crevices, enhancing its visual depth, alongside general surface wear indicative of its used condition., 2. Textured Band Ring: This Sterling Silver band presents a simpler yet distinct textured or hammered finish. Its condition reflects prior use, with some surface wear and light tarnishing across the metal., 3. Wide Patterned Band Ring: A broader Sterling Silver band, this piece is adorned with abstract cut-out or embossed patterns. It displays a pronounced dark oxidation, particularly within the patterned areas, which contributes to its character. Minor surface scratches are also present, consistent with its used state., Condition: As-Is

Lot 61: Vintage Silver-Tone Assortment: Pocket Watch Chain, Signet Rings, Monogrammed Cufflinks, Tie Pin, Ch

This assortment comprises several vintage or antique silver-tone accessories. Each item exhibits characteristics typical of its age, including wear and patina., 1. Pocket Watch Chain (Fob Chain): A delicate, curb-link style chain featuring a secure clasp on one end and a circular medallion on the other. The medallion is etched with a distinct monogram, possibly 'EM' or 'RM', showing surface wear consistent with age., 2. Rings (2): One ring features a flat, rectangular top surface adorned with an intricate etched design, possibly initials or a symbolic crest. The details show some softening due to wear., The second ring is a classic signet-style ring, exhibiting a smooth, slightly worn surface. Any original engraving on its flat top is now quite faint, suggesting considerable use., 3. Cufflinks (2): A matching pair of oval-shaped cufflinks, each meticulously etched with a monogrammed initial. The engravings retain good detail, though the overall surface shows a gentle patina and minor surface marks, indicating their vintage status. They are of the stud-back variety., 4. Tie Pin/Lapel Pin: A slender pin culminating in an oval head, which features an etched design, possibly a star or a heraldic crest. The design is still discernable, and the metal shows light wear., 5. Small Nugget/Charm: An irregularly shaped metallic object, suggesting a natural form or an abstract design. Its small size and appearance indicate it might have functioned as a charm or a small decorative element. The surface shows age-appropriate dulling and minor abrasions., All items collectively exhibit a silver-tone appearance, likely silver or a silver-plated base metal, and display varying degrees of surface wear, patination, and minor scratches consistent with their age and use. No third-party grading or specific metal purity marks are visible., Condition: As-Is

Lot 62: Men's Cufflink & Tie Clip Lot - Vintage Collection, Assorted Designs, Mixed Metals

This collection features a variety of vintage men's accessories, showcasing distinct styles and materials., 1. Pair of Square Open-Design Cufflinks: These silver-toned cufflinks feature a sleek, modern square design with an open, architectural element. The finish appears to be polished, with some minor surface wear consistent with age., 2. Pair of Square Red Star Cufflinks: These cufflinks are also silver-toned, with a slightly textured or brushed finish. Each cufflink is adorned with a prominent red star design, likely set with a small red stone at its center, exhibiting good color saturation. Condition appears well-preserved with minimal visible damage., 3. Single Blue and White Enamel Round Stud/Cufflink: A unique single stud or cufflink, crafted in a silver tone, featuring a circular face with intricate blue and white enamel work. The enamel appears largely intact, showing vibrant colors., 4. Single Pearl and Scrollwork Pin/Stud: This gold-toned accessory presents a delicate design with a prominent white pearl accent. It features scrollwork or leaf-like elements surrounding the pearl, suggesting a refined aesthetic. The pearl exhibits good luster., 5. Silver-Tone Golf Club Tie Clip/Lapel Chain: A distinctive tie clip or lapel chain crafted from a silver-toned metal. One end is shaped like a detailed golf club, while the other is a sleek, polished bar, connected by a fine chain. The piece shows good structural integrity and a clean finish, with slight signs of use., All items are in good vintage condition, suitable for collection or wear., Condition: As-Is

Lot 63: Elgin Vintage Pocket Watch and Gold-Tone Rectangular Wristwatch Pair, Used

This offering includes two vintage timepieces:, 1. Elgin Vintage Pocket Watch:, Type: Open-face pocket watch., Brand: Elgin., Era: Estimated early to mid-20th century., Case Material: Gold-tone metal, likely gold-filled or plated., Dial: White dial with black Arabic numerals, blued hour and minute hands, and a subsidiary seconds dial at the 6 o'clock position. The dial presents a clean appearance., Condition: Used condition, displaying age-appropriate wear consistent with its vintage nature. Minor surface scratches are visible on the crystal and case. The watch is assumed to be in running condition but has not been recently serviced., 2. Vintage Gold-Tone Rectangular Wristwatch:, Type: Rectangular wristwatch, likely a tank or tonneau style., Brand: Not identifiable from visual inspection., Era: Estimated to be from the Art Deco period., Case Material: Gold-tone metal, likely gold-filled or plated, featuring decorative detailing on the case., Dial: Light-colored dial with gold-tone Arabic numerals and hands. The dial exhibits significant discoloration, patina, and wear, obscuring some details., Condition: Used condition, showing considerable wear, including scratches on the crystal and case. The dial's condition is heavily affected by age and environment. Functionality is unknown., Condition: As-Is

Lot 64: Seiko SQ Gold Tone Quartz Day-Date Watch with Fluted Bezel, Jubilee Bracelet, and Spiritual Medallion

1. Seiko SQ Quartz Day-Date Watch: This timepiece, originating from the esteemed Japanese manufacturer Seiko, features a gold-tone finish, likely composed of gold-plated stainless steel for both its case and Jubilee-style bracelet. The watch face presents a gold-colored dial with elegant stick hour markers and includes a day and date complication prominently displayed at the 3 o'clock position. The bezel is fluted, adding a classic touch. Its condition is Used, exhibiting minor surface scratches and wear on the case, bezel, and bracelet, which are consistent with its age and previous use. The crystal appears clear. This item is not slabbed or professionally graded. 2. Spiritual Medallion: This round, gold-colored medallion is crafted from what appears to be a base metal with gold plating. It features a detailed inscription of Galatians 5:22-23, which reads: 'the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. Against such there is no law.' The medallion is in good condition, with its inscription clear and minimal observable wear. It is not slabbed or professionally graded, and its country of origin or mint year are not identifiable., Condition: As-Is
