LOT 50 - Unsorted Collection of Wheat Pennies, 50 US Lincoln Cents, Copper

Description

This listing features an unsorted collection of approximately 50 US Lincoln Wheat Pennies. Each coin is a one-cent denomination from the United States, typically composed of 95% copper for issues prior to 1982. The collection comprises circulated coins, and as such, individual mint years, mint marks, and precise grades are not individually specified or guaranteed without further detailed examination. The overall condition of the coins is consistent with typical circulation, showing varying degrees of toning, wear, and possible minor scratches commensurate with their age and use. No third-party grading or slabbing is present for these raw coins., Condition: As-Is
